

In the News: The 5 W;s and an H (5-1A)

Directions: Following are leads or opening paragraphs of five newspaper stories. Read each and fill in the answers to the 5 w's and an H that it contains. If one is not included, mark a dash on the line for its answer. Each includes at least five of the six. You need not copy all the exact words.

1. Benson High's Xavier Powers was named Athlete of the Year at the all-city sports banquet Friday in recognition of his record-breaking scoring in basketball this year.
 - a. Who or What? _____
 - b. Did What? _____
 - c. When? _____
 - d. Where? _____
 - e. Why? _____
 - f. How? _____

2. In her recent book, Fads and Fantasies, psychologist Betina Everett warns teenagers against setting false goals, by exposing twisted standards of beauty and behavior in TV and films.
 - a. Who or What? _____
 - b. Did What? _____
 - c. When? _____
 - d. Where? _____
 - e. Why? _____
 - f. How? _____

3. Armed with signed petitions, opponents of a new sports arena plan to stage a protest at tonight's city council meeting. They hope to convince members to vote it down.
 - a. Who or What? _____
 - b. Did What? _____
 - c. When? _____
 - d. Where? _____
 - e. Why? _____
 - f. How? _____

4. By non-stop barking, whining, and pawing, their pet dog Spunky alerted the Garcia family members of fire in their Sloane Avenue home early this morning. All escaped unharmed.
 - a. Who or What? _____
 - b. Did What? _____
 - c. When? _____
 - d. Where? _____
 - e. Why? _____
 - f. How? _____

5. Eastgate's 86-85 win Tuesday night over chief rival Bayfield strengthens the home team's chance for the league championship, putting Eastgate in tie for first with Henley.
 - a. Who or What? _____
 - b. Did What? _____
 - c. When? _____
 - d. Where? _____
 - e. Why? _____
 - f. How? _____