

In the News: The 5 W;s and an H (5-1B)

Directions: Following are leads or opening paragraphs of five newspaper stories. Read each and fill in the answers to the 5 w's and an H that it contains. If one is not included, mark a dash on the line for its answer. Each includes at least five of the six. You need not copy all the exact words.

1. Rayman Webster, Farmingdale junior, was awarded top honors in this year's statewide Young Artist contest at ceremonies today in Capital City. His painting was named best of 2,000 entries.
 - a. Who or What? _____
 - b. Did What? _____
 - c. When? _____
 - d. Where? _____
 - e. Why? _____
 - f. How? _____

2. "Somebody had to do it," said Toni Grace, 14 who saved 4-year-old Sheryl Wayne from drowning in a neighbor's pool yesterday. The toddler fell in, after straying from home.
 - a. Who or What? _____
 - b. Did What? _____
 - c. When? _____
 - d. Where? _____
 - e. Why? _____
 - f. How? _____

3. Sought as treasure and history, a sunken Spanish galleon was discovered Saturday off Mexico's coast. Divers credit the find to an ancient map, scientific diving equipment, and luck.
 - a. Who or What? _____
 - b. Did What? _____
 - c. When? _____
 - d. Where? _____
 - e. Why? _____
 - f. How? _____

4. In order to prevent further robberies, police today issues a warning against con men now operating in Carlton, who identify themselves as furnace inspectors to gain entry into homes.
 - a. Who or What? _____
 - b. Did What? _____
 - c. When? _____
 - d. Where? _____
 - e. Why? _____
 - f. How? _____

5. TV Clarissa Kraft said her job "looks more glamorous than it is," when interviewed today by local media. The young actress described long hours and grueling rehearsals.
 - a. Who or What? _____
 - b. Did What? _____
 - c. When? _____
 - d. Where? _____
 - e. Why? _____
 - f. How? _____