Dec. 7, 19--

Wilson raised $350 for United Way with the second annual Miss United Way assembly on November 14.

"We made $125 more than last year said Linda Williams, Exec-Board activities director and the organizer of this assembly.

A court of 8 "princesses" , boys dressed up as girls, competed for the crown.

They collected student donations throughout the day. Sabrina Stevens, also known as senior Steve Stevens, was crowned queen because he gathered the most money, $65.

"All the money goes directly to United Way," Williams said.

United Way is an organization that focuses on programs dealing with childcare, health education, family and mental health services and aid to the handicapped.

frosh elections
Oct. 4, 19--

Freshman class elections were held in the cafeteria during the "C" schedule activity period on Thursday, October 3.

The race for presidency resulted in a run-off with Jason Lagesen coming out the victor.

The remaining new members of the Freshman Student Council are Justin Phelps, vice-president; Blake Berselli, treasurer; Kari Steinbock, secretary; and Alissa Creamer, historian.

There was a lot of competition between Freshmen this year for class offices, with five people running for president. many who ran this year stated that they had previous student council experience.

When asked about what changes the new Freshman Class president, Jason Lagesen, planned to bring to Wilson, he said, "I want to establish a Freshman newsletter that tells about the accomplishments of Freshman," and added that he wants the Freshmen to be recognized more than they have been in the past.

The elections were organized by the Executive Board.
